

Do not lift the ban on cross-ownership of media. We need many voices to be heard in our media in order to have a well-informed public and a meaningful democratic process.